

MARVIN F. POER AND COMPANY

EXECUTIVE PROFILE

Kenneth E. Graeber, Vice President

QUALIFICATIONS / EXPERIENCE

- ❖ Served as the Executive Director of the State Property Tax Board and as the Chief Appraiser of Harris County Appraisal District in Houston
- ❖ Provides expertise and leadership in the areas of planning, managing and handling large and complex property appeals
- ❖ Directly responsible for tax savings in excess of $25 million over the past three years
- ❖ Former President of Real Estate Tax Services

CREDENTIALS / EDUCATION

- ❖ MS degree in Agricultural Economics from Texas A & M University and employed by Texas A & M where he conducted and developed education programs on appraisal, investment analysis, and income and estate tax management. He has also authored publications on these topics
- ❖ Registered Senior Property Tax Consultant in the State of Texas
- ❖ Formerly served on the Board of Directors of the Texas Association of Property Tax Professionals, currently serves as Chairman of the Ethics Committee, member of the Legislative Committee, and also as an instructor for the organization
- ❖ Received the Extension Service's Superior Service Award while on the staff of Texas A & M

SUMMARY

Kenneth E. Graeber, Vice President with the Poer Company, has a diverse background in the tax profession and is widely known and well respected in the State of Texas. He is responsible for the management of Poer's South Texas operations which include both the Houston and San Antonio offices.